

Position: Orangutan Enrichment Volunteer Coordinator

Organization: Borneo Orangutan Survival Australia (BOS Australia)

Location: Remote, Borneo, Indonesia

Duration: October 2024 to March 2025

About Us: Borneo Orangutan Survival Australia is dedicated to the conservation of orangutans and sun bears in Borneo. We are part of a global partner network who support Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation who operate the Samboja Lestari Lodge and orangutan and sun bear sanctuary, providing a safe haven for these endangered species.

Job Description: We are seeking a passionate individual to lead our orangutan enrichment volunteer tours. As the Orangutan Enrichment Volunteer Coordinator, you will manage our seasonal volunteer tour program, ensuring a rewarding experience for participants while contributing to the welfare of orangutans and sun bears. Responsibilities include coordinating volunteer activities, managing tour logistics, and liaising with the Borneo Orangutan Survival Foundation team.

Requirements:

- Passion for wildlife conservation
- Experience in zoo animal husbandry or related field
- Ability to manage volunteers or tour groups
- Excellent organizational and communication skills
- Willingness to learn the Bahasa language
- Availability from October 2024 to March 2025

How to Apply: To apply email a cover letter along with your CV to president@orangutans.com.au. Please download our candidate pack and position description here. Applications are open now.

Join us on this exciting adventure and make a real difference to orangutans and sun bears in Borneo!